

Watercolor Workshop on the Beara Peninsula of Ireland
May 18 - 25th, 2019.

Early Savings with Registration by January 30, 2019

(please note this date has been changed from November 30th deadline, as the registration information was not posted on my website!)

I'm so happy that you will be joining me at Anam Cara. I am sure you will love it as much as I do; and if you have been with me before, welcome back!

Since the village of Eyeries and Anam Cara are a bit "off the beaten track", travel information will be provided after registration

Please fill out the registration form below, and email back to me with the non-refundable $250.00 deposit to save your space. Be sure to send the remaining $750.00 by January 30, 2019 so you will get the $200.00 savings for early registration.

There are four available rooms at Anam Cara, that are best suited to a single artist and are allotted on a first come, first served basis. Two rooms have a private bath; the others share with one other artist. (NOTE: at this time, there are two rooms still available).

We also have rooms reserved at Coulagh Bay B&B. The B&B is 7-10 minutes walk from Anam Cara. The rooms at the B&B all have private ensuite baths. If you wish, you could share with a painting friend or partner/spouse for a 10% savings. The view from the B&B is spectacular!

Please specify whether you prefer to stay at Anam Cara or the B&B. I can assure you that you will be happy with either location.

Ride are provided back and forth if desired, and also to our painting sites. It is not necessary to carry painting supplies to and from painting sites.

However, everyone must be physically able to walk fifteen to twenty minutes within the village and from parking areas to where we will be painting. The walk to the Stone Circle is across a pasture, so it is uneven, and we climb over a stile. It is not hiking in any sense, but also not a stroll on even ground.

Do let us know in advance if you have dietary requirements. Although Anam Cara's meals are all home made and nutritious, we cannot provide a totally vegan or gluten-free menu. However, there is always enough variety in the meals that vegetarians will not be disappointed, and we make every effort to accommodate.
